Knitting Pattern A Day 2008

I had the SnB page a day calendar last year, and I was disappointed that it only had patterns on Fridays, and the rest of the week was dedicated to knitting trivia and such, so this year I asked for the Knitting pattern a day calendar, in the hopes that I could really beef up my pattern collection. Ugh, is just about all I have to say.

The Knitting Pattern-a-Day calendars are a much better value for money. Many, many more patterns (though several go over two days) with greater variety, an index to the patterns so you can find them again, cards with a monthly calendar below so that you can list important dates and/or projects for that month, and the box is constructed better.

Difficult in a calendar page-a-day format. Also, there is a good mix of types of projects, hats, socks, washcloths, etc. One caveat is that several patterns, including today's take up more than one day (page), so you really don't get 365 patterns. Not a huge problem since there's no way I could knit them all in one year.

Paris By Day is one of my favorite patterns. This pattern is perfect for the intermediate knitter who is proficient with k2tog, ssk, and yarn overs. We used 3 skeins of the Baah Savannah Dipped and Dappled colors. The Baah Savannah has a touch of luxurious cashmere, giving it extra softness, loft, and drape.
