I like the federal witch series - no quibbles about it. This novel, like previous four has Agatha once again taking on all comers in her restrained kick-ass way. Once in a while, I like to read an engrossing novel where the hero or heroine is just plain good at what they do and gets to show everyone that they are.

Another great Federal Witch book! I must say this is turning into an addiction of mine. This series is great, as the Federal Witch universe grows the depth of the characters does as well. I wasn't sure I would be into the back story of the characters as much but it is a nice tie in for the story as a whole.
